

Jabari Clarkson - by Parker Canty

age: 28

residence: Seattle, WA

education: BA - Marketing

occupation: Freelance Photographer

marital status: Single, but in a long-term relationship

"Let's get this bread!"

Jabari often spends his days hustling around Seattle and its neighboring suburbs in order to take photos of people for his freelance photography business. Living in the Seattle metro area, he doesn't feel like there is a need to have a car, as there are various modes of public transportation at his disposal. As a result, he does sometimes get himself into binds with the perpetual lateness of metro systems in general. And with his overall disdain of lateness in general, he tries to make various countermeasures throughout the day in order to avoid being late.

"The secret of life is to fall seven times and to get up eight times." — Paulo Coelho

Day usually spent working on app and dealing with other employees. Always looking for more jobs to do because can't ever be "too busy" or have "too much money" which is the way I choose to live my life. Whenever I do give myself free-time I spend it watching tv, playing videogames, or sleeping.
